ABOUT ME

After studying Art and Design at University I decided to set up as a freelance artist. I work on commissions such as personalised cards, paintings and book illustrations.

I enjoy the therapeutic nature of using watercolour and creating scenes and images with a whimsical feel. I believe in the power of the imagination and hope that the tranquil and warm atmosphere of my art can inspire others and brighten their day.

I keep things as eco-friendly as possible. I use a local printing service and do not supply cards with cellophane, instead I throw in an extra card for display and handling. The envelopes are also 100% recycled.
